INTRODUCTION

On the 348 rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the applications submitted for shares of the money that was appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Congress on June 30, 1906. The Eastern Cherokee applications, August 29, 1906-May 26, 1909, are part of the Guion Miller Enrollment Records that are among the records of the U.S. Court of Claims. This publication also includes a general index to Eastern Cherokee applications (two vols.).

History

Before the U.S. Court of Claims was established in 1855 there was no procedure by which claims arising against the U.S. Government could be enforced by suit. Consideration of claims was provided for when the Treasury Department was established in 1789; later acts of the Congress authorized the Department to settle all claims by or against the Government. If a claim was rejected by the Treasury Department, the claimant's only course of action was to appeal directly to the Congress. Petitions to that body for relief had become so numerous by the middle of the 19th century that the Congress was beginning to find it impossible to make the proper and necessary investigations for actions on the claims.

The U.S. Court of Claims was established by an act of February 24, 1855, to hear claims against the United States including those referred to the court by the Congress, based on any law of the Congress, any regulation of an executive department, or any contract with the Government, whether explicit or implied. Under this act the court served only as a factfinding agency, and its conclusions were submitted to the Congress for approval and for the granting of awards. In 1863 the Congress enlarged the court's jurisdiction and gave it authority to render judgments against the Government, with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. An act of 1925 abolished appeals from the Court of Claims to the Supreme Court and substituted writs of certiorari.

An act approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 726), gave the Court of Claims jurisdiction over any claim arising under treaty stipulations that the Cherokee Tribe, or any band thereof, might have against the United States and over any claims that the United States might have against any Cherokee Tribe or band. Suit for such a claim was to be instituted within 2 years after the act was approved. As a result, three suits were brought before the court concerning grievances arising out of the treaties:

(1) The Cherokee Nation v. The United States, General-Jurisdiction Case No. 23199; (2) The Eastern and Emigrant Cherokees v. The United States, General-Jurisdiction Case No. 23212; and (3) The Eastern Cherokees v. The United States, General-Jurisdiction Case No. 23214.

On May 18, 1905, the court decided in favor of the Eastern Cherokees and instructed the Secretary of the Interior to identify the persons entitled to participate in the distribution of funds for payment of the claims. On June 30, 1906, the Congress appropriated more than $1 million for this purpose. The task of compiling a roll of eligible persons was begun by Guion Miller, special agent of the Interior Department. In a decree of April 29, 1907, the court (1) vacated that part of its earlier decision that had given the Secretary of the Interior responsibility for determing the eligbility of claimants and (2) appointed Miller as a special commissioner of the Court of Claims.

The same decree also provided that the fund was to be distributed to all Eastern and Western Cherokee Indians who were alive on May 28, 1906, who could establish the fact that at the time of the treaties they were members of the Eastern Cherokee Tribe or were descendants of such persons, and that they had not been affiliated with any tribe of Indians other than the Eastern Cherokee or the Cherokee Nation. The decree further provided that claimants should already have applications on file with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or should file such applications with the special commissioner of the Court of Claims on or before August 31, 1907. Additionally, applications for minors and persons of unsound mind were to be filed by their parents or persons having their care and custody, and applications for persons who had died after May 28, 1906, were to be filed by their children or legal representatives.

In his report of May 28, 1909, Miller stated that 45,847 separate applications had been filed, representing a total of about 90,000 individual claimants, 30,254 of whom were enrolled as entitled to share in the fund--3,203 residing east and 27,051 residing west of the Mississippi River. On June 10, 1909, the court confirmed and approved the roll, submitted by Miller in his report, of Eastern Cherokees who were entitled to a share of the fund except "so much as shall be expected (excepted) to on or before August 30, 1909." After the exceptions had been filed and investigated, Miller submitted a supplemental report and roll to the court on January 5, 1910. In this report he stated that about 11,750 exceptions had been made, that the names of 610 persons (238 east and 372 west of the Mississippi) had been added to the roll, and that the names of 44 persons (5 east and 39 west of the Mississippi) had been stricken from the roll because clerical errors in enrollment had been discovered. Thus the final figure on the total number of persons entitled to share in the fund was 30,820, of which 3,436 persons resided east and 27,384 resided west of the Mississippi River. On March 15, 1910, the court finally decreed that the rolls be approved and that, after certain deductions for expenditures, payments were to be made equally among the Eastern Cherokees who were enrolled. The court also authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to issue a warrant in favor of each person.

In certifying the eligibility of the Cherokees, Miller used earlier census lists and rolls that had been made of the Cherokees by Hester, Chapman, Drennen, and others between 1835 and 1884. Copies of some of these rolls and the indexes to them are filed with the Miller records(filmed as M685). Other enrollment records used by Miller are among the classified subject files of the Bureau and are designated as "33931-11-053 Cherokee Nation."

Records

The applications contain sworn evidences of identity and were filed with the Interior Department's Office of Indian Affairs until April 29, 1907 (the last application was No. 22268), after which the applications were filed directly with the court. The application required each claimant to state fully his or her English and Indian names, residence, age, place of birth, name of husband or wife, name of tribe, and names of children. It further required the English and Indian names of the claimant's parents and grandparents, place of their birth, place of their residence in 1851 if they were living at that time, dates of their death, and a statement as to whether any of them had ever before been enrolled as Indians for annuities or other benefits and, if so, with what tribe. Each claimant was also to furnish the names of all brothers and sisters, with their ages and residences, and the names and residences of all uncles and aunts. Applications were required to be made under oath and to be supported by affidavits of two witnesses who were well acquainted with the applicant. With each application is a card showing final action taken and the reasons therefore. Filed with many of the applications are inquiries concerning the status of the cases, requests for further evidence, protests about unfavorable actions, form letters that had been sent by the special commissioner to the applicants as notices of rejection of their applications and returned by the Post Office Department as unclaimed, affidavits and statements of witnesses, powers of attorney, and last wills and testaments. The applications are arranged by the number assigned at the time the application was received. There are some gaps in the application numbers; these are explained on insert sheets at the appropriate places on the film. The index is arranged alphabetically by name (either English or Indian) of claimant.

Many of the files contain a cross-reference card to other applications. This cross-reference card often refers to the EX file, the report on exceptions filed by Miller on January 5, 1910.

Related Records

The records reproduced in this microfilm publication are part of the records in the custody of the National Archives and Records Service (NARS) designated as Records of the U.S. Court of Claims, Record Group (RG) 123. These include receipts for Treasury warrants and miscellaneous correspondence, 1906-11. The original of these records is in RG 123; a copy is in RG 75.

Some related records in Records of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, RG 75, have been reproduced as NARS Microfilm Publication T496, Census Roll, 1835, of the Cherokee Indians East of the Mississippi and Index to the Roll. Also in RG 75 are the classified subject files of the Bureau.

Records Relating to Enrollment of Eastern Cherokees by Guion Miller, 1908-10, M685, contains the general index to Eastern Cherokee applications, 2 volumes; the report submitted by Guion Miller, May 28, 1909, 10 volumes; the roll of Eastern Cherokees, May 28, 1909; the report on exceptions filed, January 5, 1910; the supplemental roll of Eastern Cherokees, January 5, 1910; transcripts of testimony, February, 1908-March 1909, 10 volumes; various indexes and rolls of Eastern Cherokee Indians, 1851, 1854, and 1884; and miscellaneous notes and drafts.

Dear Sir:-

Your letter of the 22nd inst., addressed to Raleigh P. Matthews, relative to his application for participation in the Eastern Cherokee fund, has been referred to me for reply.

-1- As to why he, his parents and his grandparents were never enrolled, he says that he does not know; but adds that all of his ancestors were very illiterate, and supposes they knew nothing about it.

-2- He does not know whether or not any of his ancestors were parties to the treaties of 1835-36 and 1846.

-3- The name of the ancestor through whom he claims is his father, Sandford Matthews, and his grandfather, Berry Matthews. His father lived in Oglethorpe County, Georgia, in 1835-6 and in Clarke County, Georgia, in 1851; his grandfather lived in Oglethorpe County, Georgia, in 1835-6, and in 1851 he was dead.

-4- None of his ancestors were ever slaves.

-5- He passes as white in the community in which he lives and is Town Marshal of Fairburn, Georgia.

As to other information bearing on his claim, he says that he is ready to furnish anything of truth that he can and stands ready to truthfully answer further questions. He says further that all of his family records were destroyed by fire when he was a young man.

Yours truly,

Clinton P. Thompson

Lucretia L. Miller, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

My name is Lucretia L. Miller. I live at Atlanta, Ga. I was born in 1869 in Clarenoch County, Va. I claim Cherokee Indian blood through my father and his father. My father died four months ago, he was between 60 and 70 years old. My father was more or more pure blood Indian. My grandfather stayed with the Indians a good long time, and married a white woman. He was born and raised somewhere in N. C. My father live with the Indians in N. C. and told me that he was a member of the Cherokee tribe. My father or his father never got any money or land from the Government on account of their Indian blood. I never heard of my father and his father being enrolled with the Cherokees. In 1880 I was living in Clarendon Co. I don't know why we were not enrolled then I guess it was because we did not live with the Indians. I have heard my father say that the white people were here when they first came. My grandmother was a Catawba Indian woman who was with the Indians when they were driven away from here, and went west with them. She came back here. I do not know that my grandfather, Willis Walton, took any part in Indian matters, but I don't tell on what ear'.

In re: Marion Artrey, being first duly sworn, depo[s]es and says:

My name is Francis Marion Artrey. I live at Atlanta, Ga. I was born in 1847. I live now at Atlanta, Ga. I was born in [illegible] County, Ga. I claim Cherokee Indian blood through my [illegible] mother. [illegible] grandmother. My mother died in 1904 and was 80 years old when she died. She was born in Henry County Ga. I guess she lived in Henry Co. I don't know where she was born and raised. My great grandmother's name was Elizabeth Martin (maiden name) I don't know where she came from. My grandmother was born in Henry Co. My mother [illegible] was recognized as a white woman. My grandmother married a white man, and I suppose was recognized as a white woman [illegible] used to read about her with the Indians. About the Indians she all ever I heard. [illegible] my great grandmother, through whom I claim my Cherokee blood married a white man. I never heard of my mother, grandmother or great grandmother ever getting any money or land from the Government on account of their Indian blood. I never heard of them being enrolled. I think my great grandmother could have been carried away from here with the Indians if she had not married a white man. [illegible] My mother and I were living in Augusta, Ga. I never heard of the enrollment of the Cherokees at that time.

Hon. Guion Miller, Special Commissioner,

601 Ouray Bldg., Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:-

Your letter of the 22nd inst., addressed to Samuel H. Brantley, relative to his application for participation in the Eastern Cherokee fund, has been referred to me for reply.

-1- As to why he, his parents and his grandparents were never enrolled, he says that he was too young, and that he does not know; but adds that all of his ancestors were very illiterate, and supposes they knew anothing about it.

-2- None of his ancestors were slaves.

-3- He passes as white, and is Mayor of the Town of Fairburn, Georgia.

-4- He does not know whether or not any of his ancestors were parties to the Treaties of 1835-6 and 1846.

-5- The name of the ancestor through whom he claims is his maternal grandmother, Matilda Mann, who married his maternal grandfather, Robert Rowan; Matilda Mann was the granddaughter of Jennie Holt, reputed to have been a full-blood Cherokee. In 1835 and 1851. Matilda Mann lived in Fayette, now Campbell, County, Georgia; Jennie Holt lived in Henry County, Georgia.

Further he desires to say that it has for a long time been common legend that he and his people are of Indian descent.

Yours truly,

C. P. Thompson

Madam:

Relative to your application for participation in the Eastern Cherokee fund please state why you, your parents and your grandparents, were never enrolled? Were any of your ancestors parties to the treaties of 1835-6 and 1846? State clearly the name of the ancestor through whom you claim and where that ancestor resided in 1835 and 1851? Were any of your ancestors ever slaves? Do you pass as white or colored in the community in which you live?

Give any other information obtainable tending to establish your right to share in this fund.

An early reply will be appreciated.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

FST/ELC.

Jesse J. McGee being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

My name is Jesse J. McGee. I live at Centralia, [illegible]. I was not enrolled by the Dawes Commission. I applied but was rejected. I was born in Mi[illegible]sippi. My father was a Cherokee Indian. My mother was a white woman. My father was born in the Cherokee Nation in G[illegible]. in 1826. He moved from G[illegible] to Ok. in 1870. He never received any money or land from the Govt. on account of his Indian blood. My father was a recognized member of the tribe. That is what he said. He was not driven out here with the Indians. He never had anything to do with the Cherokees. My grandmother was a white woman. My grandfather was a Cherokee Indian. My grandfather was killed in 1818, and my grandmother moved to the white people in Tenn. with her father. There were no Indians there in Tenn. where they lived.

Dear Sir:- Refering to application No. 41535
for participation in the Eastern Cherokee Fund and in answer to the questions you asked in your letter dated May 22nd 1908. will say that the reason I never made application to be enrolled, was because things were in such a confused condition to me, I did not know how to proceed to be enrolled. My father (Robert C.
Ferguson) who is now dead did not try to be enrolled because he said people would look down upon him if they knew he was part indian. My Mother wanted him to go and be enrolled. As to my grandparents, I think don't know of them were in. I dont also not know for sure. My Grandmother's brother, John Hannah Jr. believe was enrolled, because he was some kind of an officer when the treaty was made in the year 1835-6
I claim my Indian blood through my grandmother Ferguson whose name was Hannah before marriage. The Hannah's were indians by

Hon. Tufon Miller, Special Commissioner,

Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:- Referring to application No. 41537, and in answer to your letter dated May 2., 1908 will say the following are the answers to the questions therin asked.

The reason my parents and grandparents were never enrolled is because they did not know just how to proceed, in fact they tried to get started on the matter by talking to attorneys, who wanted to charge them $50/00 per head to get them on the rolls; They were poor and could not pay such big fees however an attorney by the name of Jessie Glenn talked with them several times about the matter, and promised to assist them ,but finally said he had forgotten to send in their applications until it was too late,for them to be enrolled.

Some of my ancestors and Great grandparents were on the rolls.

I claim my Indian blood through the Jennings,who lived in Going Snake District in the Cherokee Nation,having moved there frm the East. My great grandmother lived in South Carolina in the years 1837 and 1838, as near as I can learn.

None of my ancestors were slaves.

I pass as a white person but people often say I am an Indian because my mother is so dark complexion.

I will be pleased to answer any questions which you are in doubt about further than above will be satisfactory to my cause.

Respectfully Yours,

Lottie Miller

Hon. Guion Miller,

I do not know why my Grandparents and parents were not enrolled. I have often heard my parents talk about the matter and say they should have been enrolled.

My father was born and raised in Cherokee Co. Georgia. so was my grandfather. My grandfather was living there in the years 1834-35 and in 1851. he died in Georgia. I get my Indian blood through my father. My great grandfather was driven to the Cherokee Nation. My grandfather's name was Solomon Beck. My father's name was Samuel Beck. My ancestors never slaves. My father has two brothers one named Joe Beck, he lived in the Cherokee Nation the last time I knew of him, the other Elick Beck lived in Georgia. I guess for white. I do not know whether I have made things clear, but I am part Cherokee just the same.

My name is Irene C. Austin. I am 39 years old. I live in Knoxville. I claim through my father. My mother is a colored woman. My father was not a slave. My mother was not a slave. My mother was born in North Carolina. My father was 57 when he died and has been dead ~~x~~ 4 years. He was born on the line of Tennessee. I claim from my father's father, and both of his parents were Indian. My father said he was full-blooded. My father visited the Indians. I suppose my father took part in the Councils and deliberations of the Indians. In 1851 he went among the Indians. He would stay a while and come back. He said he was with the Cherokee Indians. His mother's parents were Wolfs. Grandmother Griffin was a Wolf. My grandparents were living in N. C. in 1851. My father was in N. C. in 1851. He visited back and forth among the Indians. I do not know that my father was ever enrolled. I do not know of any ancestors ever enrolled. My father was sometimes known as Wolf. My grandparents were never on any roll that I know of. My grandparents on my father's side were never held as slaves. This is the only application I have ever made. We are recognized as colored in the community in which we live. ~~xxxx~~ My father never said why he was not enrolled when he was in N. C. in 1851. My father never received any money that I know of. I know of no one who can give any other information. The information I have given is the best I am able to furnish.

Dear Sir:

I am in receipt of the 25 ult. enclosed and in answer to the same will say my father never was related to the Davis's of Kentucky. My relation to the Davis came through my mother, for Jefferson Davis (my grand father) came to Georgia in the year 1835 (in Elbert county Ga.)

Nicholas Davis (my great grand father) came to Georgia in the year 1835

John Davis died in the first year of ~~the~~ Richmond's administration the year 1861

Nicholas Davis died in the year 1854 in Gwinnett Co. Ga. and died in Gwinnett County in about 1870

None of my people were never slaves of Indians as I know of.
My great grand father (William Davis) lived the most of his time in Gwinnett Co. Ga.
Also my Grand father (Yarbo Davis)
was born, reared & died in Gwinnettia Ga, until he went to the Civil war.
I do not know whether any of them ever taken any part in the tribal form-ities or not.
Very respectfully

Appln. No. 41573. June 1, 1908.

Martha A. Mitchell,
Thornton, Ind.

Madam:

Referring to your application for participation in the Eastern Cherokee fund please state why you, your parents and your grandparents, were never enrolled. Were any of your ancestors parties to the treaties of 1835-6 and 1846. State briefly, the name of the ancestor through whom you claim, tribe of ancestor, census, where enrolled if enrolled, and where that ancestor resided in 1855. Were any of your ancestors slaves? Do you claim white or colored in the community in which you live. Claimant does not claim either, but states as 2/3 Indian.

Give any other information obtainable bearing on the question of your right to share in this fund.

An early reply will be appreciated.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

Guion Miller, Special Commissioner,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

Your communication to Mrs. Martha A. Mitchell, claimant under application #41572, has been turned over to us to answer. Mrs. Mitchell does not know why none of her ancestors were never enrolled. Her great-grandfather, Horney Nevels, an Indian Chief, was a party to the Treaties of 1835-6 and 1840. She is making her claim through her great-grandfather, Horne, Nevels and in 1835 and 1840 he resided in the territory with the Indians. None of claimant's ancestors were slaves. The Mitchell family are known in this community as a "colored" family, but Mrs. Mitchell never claimed to be anything but Indian. She is 3/4 Indian and always wished to be registered as Indian. It is very hard to give an intelligent reply, as she had to rely solely upon her memory for the information.

Respectfully Yours,

Geo. Lyster, Ag't.

Martha A. Mitchell. #41572.

Martha A. Mitchell being first duly sworn deposes and says:

My name is Martha A. Mitchell, and I am 68, I was born in 1841 and I was born in Indianapolis. I claim my Indian blood through my mother, Martha Terrill. She was born in Raleigh, N.C. she was every bit of 80 years old at the time of her death. Martha Terill is my grandmother, and not my mother. I misunderstood the question. My own mother was named Mary Jane Terrill. My grandmother died before my mother, and my mother died here in Ind. My great grandfather was a full blooded Cherokee Indian, and my grandmother was a 1/2 blood. I never heard of any colored blood in my mother's family. Martha Terrel came to Ind. while I was a child, and I remember her very well. She always taught me that my grandfather, Horny Revels, was a full blood Cherokee Indian. I never heard of my people ever getting any money from the Governemnt on account of their Indian blood. I am recognized in the community in which I live as a squaw. On my father's side there was some colored blood, but they were never held as slaves.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 17th day of Aug. 1908. at Noblesville, Ind.

The above witness, continuing, says I know Cyrus Dempsey, he is my cousin, and he claims his Indian blood the same as I do.
